

Cambridge Reproduction SRI
'Maternal Mortality in Africa' workshop

Monday 28 September and Tuesday 29 September 2020, online

Monday 28 September

- 13:00 Introduction
- 13:15 Session 1: How did the Danish birth care system manage to keep the late-nineteenth century level of MMR below the level of MMR in sub-Saharan Africa of today?
Speakers: Professor Anne Løkke and Ms Anna Kristiane Mortensen (University of Copenhagen, Denmark)
Chair: Dr Alice Reid (Department of Geography)
- 14:15 Break
- 14:30 Session 2: Interdisciplinary perspectives on maternal mortality in Kenya
Speaker: Professor Shane Doyle (University of Leeds, UK)
Chair: Professor Simon Szreter (Faculty of History)
- 15:30 Break
- 15:45 Zoom breakout sessions
- 16:30 General Zoom discussion

Tuesday 29 September

- 13:00 Introduction
- 13:15 Session 3: Maternal mortality in Sub-Saharan Africa: the Ugandan situation
Speaker: Ms Oliver Norah Nabacwa (Mulago Hospital, Uganda)
Chair: Professor Ashley Moffett (Department of Pathology)
- 14:15 Break
- 14:30 Session 4: Regional progress and policy response to reduce maternal mortality in sub-Saharan Africa
Speaker: Dr Estelle Sidze (African Population & Health Research Center, Kenya)
Chair: Dr Yuliya Hilevych (Faculty of History)
- 15:30 Break
- 15:45 Zoom breakout sessions
- 16:30 General Zoom discussion

Organised and sponsored by: